Applications are now being accepted for a new housing complex lottery in Johnson City.

The new complex is scheduled to open later this fall and lottery winners will be announced on September 9th.

The apartments will be at 333 Grand Avenue. A total of 72 apartments are in the complex. There will be 27 one-bedroom apartments, 41 two-bedroom apartments, and 4 three-bedroom apartments.

The one-bedroom apartments will run between $772 to $991 a month. The two-bedroom apartments cost between $531 and $1,282. Rent for the three-bedroom apartments is $1,309.

All apartments have hard surface flooring, decorator style bathrooms, kitchens with brand new ranges and refrigerators, pre-wiring for cable television, and free internet connection.

Those interested are able to apply before August 25th. Interested applicants can contact SEPP Management at 607-723-8989 or visit homesteadsongrand.com. SEPP is a Binghamton-based non-profit that specializes in affordable housing.
